

Develop Nurse Practitioners competence and confidence in delivering high quality full scope primary care in the FQHC setting.

Core Competencies

Program Objectives

Require fellows to meet targets for volume, diversity, and complexity of clinical visits

Require fellows to complete rotations in specialties relevant to caring for our patient population

Gradually increase in volume and complexity of visits by following ramp-up schedule

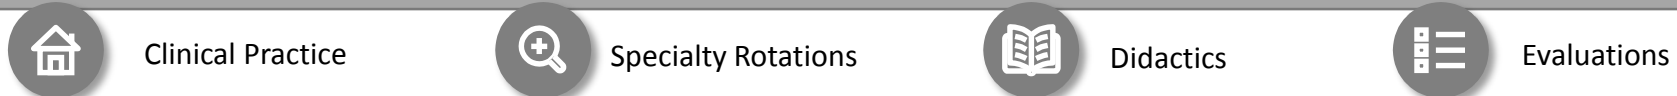

Deliver weekly didactics and regularly scheduled grand rounds

Provide respectful, constructive feedback to fellows through structured evaluations and mentor sessions

Provide a high quality fellowship program by continual program improvement through structured evaluations

Provide fellows with excellent mentorship by holding teacher trainings for Faculty NPs

Curricular Elements

Learning Objectives

Manage the flow of primary care sessions by prioritizing and delegating tasks as appropriate

Provide high quality patient centered care

Develop competency in health topics specific to our patient population

Effectively communicate with patient about their medical conditions with education and support

Use feedback from self-evaluations and learner evaluations to achieve high standards of care

Learning Outcomes

Perform, Gather, Organize, Interpret, Make Decisions, Develop plans for the most common health concerns

Provide wellness care and health promotion counseling for all stages of life

Formulate appropriate differential diagnoses based on subjective and objective information collected and external sources

Demonstrate effective patient education through motivational interviewing and other techniques

Demonstrate appropriate communication with patients about their medical conditions and plan in a way they understand

Achieve ramp-up targets for volume, diversity, and complexity of visits

Actively participate in didactics

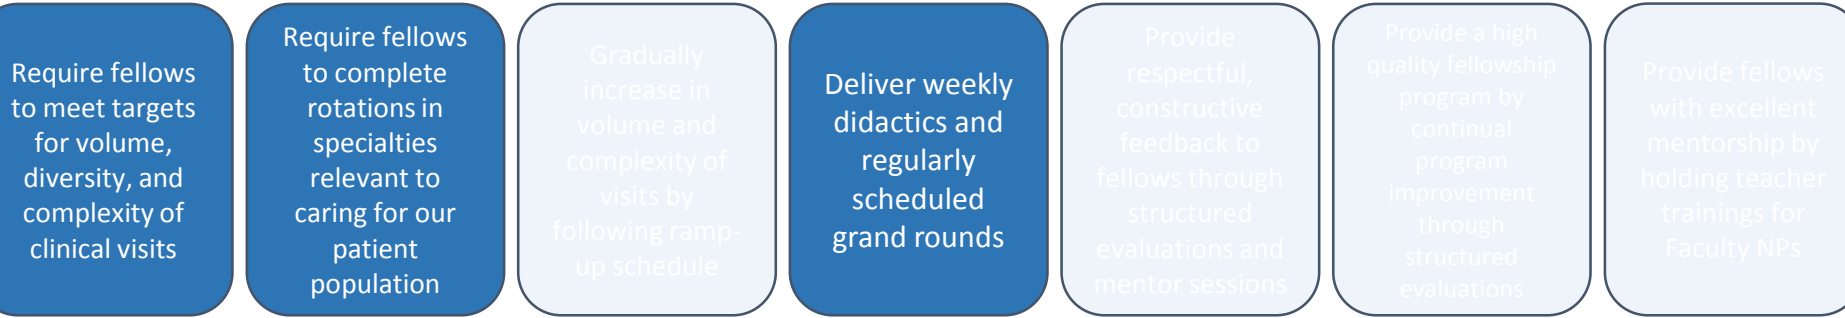

Demonstrate improvement in care quality measures and achieve highest level by end of program

Develop Nurse Practitioners competence and confidence in delivering high quality full scope primary care in the FQHC setting.

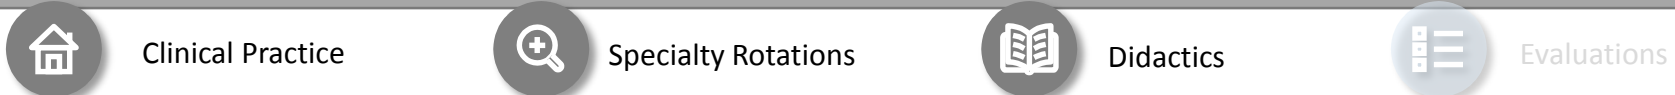

Core Competencies

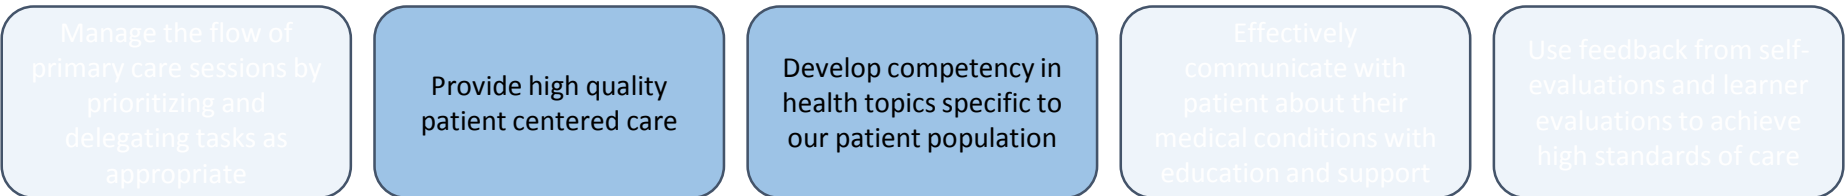

Program Objectives

Curricular Elements

Learning Objectives

Learning Outcomes

